

COLLEGE RECRUITING SEMINAR FOR VOLLEYBALL

Hosted by

Sunday October 11th
7:30pm-9:30pm
Aurora High School

This seminar is an educational presentation for parents & athletes seeking success in college recruiting. All athletes, parents and coaches are welcome.

- Learn what you need to do in grades 8-12 to increase your chances of college athletic opportunities.
- Get the inside secrets on how to earn money for college by playing volleyball.
- Listen to College Coach's tips on what they look for during the recruiting process.

Cost: $25 for athlete and both parents

Register on-line at:

www.AVCvolleyball.com

 Save $5
for You and a Friend!

Bring this coupon and you
and a friend (plus parents)
save $5 each.
($20 per family)

About the Presenters:

Scott Carter - Scott is currently the Nation's top Independent Talent Scout for the sport of volleyball. His recruiting expertise has been developed over seventeen years of college coaching where he has been both a Head Coach & Recruiting Coordinator. Scott has recruited various degrees of talent for programs ranging from non-scholarship to fully-funded.

Ron Arenz - Head Women's Volleyball Coach at the University of Akron, NCAA Division I.

Ellen Dempsey - Head Women's Volleyball Coach at Hiram College, NCAA Division III.